Leading meeting point for forestry practise

Every two year, DLG-Waldtage is the leading meeting point for forestry practise from Germany and neighbouring countries. In 2022, we will once again be guests at Lichtenau in North Rhine-Westphalia. The organiser is the German Agricultural Society (DLG) with the friendly support of project and expert partners.

Five good reasons for taking part

- 1 Forestry & Timber competence platform
Your innovations and trends for tackling the challenges of the forestry and timber sector
- 2 In dialogue with your customers
Over 15,000 forestry professionals from Germany and neighbouring countries
- 3 Well-founded exhibition and technical programme
Highly topical subjects will be staged practice-oriented in special areas and controversially discussed in forum contributions
- 4 Broad media presence
Industry topic No. 1 and a meeting place for decision-makers from politics and business
- 5 In the Forestry & Timber network
As a professional organisation and a trade fair organiser, the DLG is your competent partner in the forestry network
